THIS IS OUR PLACE

"God gave all men all earth to love,
But since our hearts are small
Ordained for each one place should prove Beloved over all." *

On this, and the following pages, is our place:

And that in it which is unique:
Our piece of the Great River, a Rio Grande, Bravo, our people who span a river and a boundary with their great spirit, who think and feel two languages and two cultures.

And that which is familiar:
Our vegas, cactus, the purple sage for which our book is named, our churches, schools, and homes, our meeting places, ranches, familiar as a coke or a tortilla.

And that which is universal:
Our youth, our small triumphs, our learning, growing, losses, gains.

These - our people and our place.

SILVER PRESENTATION TO PRINCIPAL FROM STUDENT BODY

Lenn Sellers Promoted to Assistant Principal for 1956

On December 21, 1956, Ileana Esparza, president of Student Council, on behalf of the high school student body, presented principal C. A. Landrum with a silver tray as a token of esteem and appreciation. The auditorium, filled to overflowing with the largest student body in Eagle Pass history, echoed with applause, and, in keeping with the holiday season, with Christmas carols, Feliz Navidad and Merry Christmas.

Below, Lenn Sellers, newly promoted assistant principal, is in great demand as distributor of excuses and tardies. He combines his administrative duties with those of distributive education coordinator.

FACULTY OFFERS LEADERSHIP IN 56 CLASSROOM SUBJECTS, 22 CLASS ACTIVITIES

A statistical run-down on the activities of our faculty turns up some surprising figures. In addition to teaching 56 different classroom subjects and supervising 22 extra class activities such as clubs, plays, publications and dances, we find they chaperone nearly 50 out of town trips, attend 30 in-service training conferences, and make numerous trips to professional conferences in other cities. During 1956-57, they provided leadership for a series of seven district conferences and attended graduate schools from New York to Texas. They participate in an average of four community and church activities each plus special drives and campaigns, teach Sunday schools and sing in choirs, serve on boards and as officers of professional organizations, and have as many different hobbies and other activities as there are teachers.

Our Lady of Refuge Roman Catholic Church.

A great religious re-awakening among us was an outstanding development of this school year. The Freshman Class initiated, and Student Council carried out, a weekly chapel service each Monday morning before first bell. This short devotional was interdenominationally led and voluntarily attended. Above, at Our Lady of Refuge Church, Father William Nash, O.M.I., talks to part of the almost 300 students, over half the high school student body, who attended religion classes at night in various churches throughout the county.

HALL WE'EN

Carnival Held
October 27

The Kissing Booth and the Horror House were the main attractions at the Senior Hallowe'en Carnival. Nealy Jones was the mysterious gypsy puzzling her customers with her strange predictions of the future.

Many laughs were drawn by Gustavo Correa and John Schmidt with their "Baby Rattler", and most victims got a big surprise.

One of the most profitable booths was the cake-walk made possible by many of the senior girls-and the mothers of the seniors who ended up making most of the cakes. Talented Bobby Robertson was literally "drawing" the crowds with his booth. He drew charcoal sketches of many who attended the carnival.

The seniors worked all day decorating the gym for the annual Hallowe'en Carnival and the gym was transformed into a world of Hallowe'en "fantasy". Mr. Rodrigues, Senior Sponsor, was right behind the class giving them that extra push needed to make the carnival a stupendous success.

CARMEN GARCIA CROWNED HOMECOMING QUEEN ON NOVEMBER 9th

Carmen Garcia was crowned queen in one of the most colorful pageants in our school's history. She was one of fourteen sweethearts nominated by the various organizations in high school. The princesses were: Ileana Esparza, Maria Elena Cairo, and Delia Rodriguez.

As the sweethearts rounded the field in new '57 cars lent by the various agencies in town, Mr. Rodrigues announced the name of each girl and the name cf the club she represented. One by one the girls were escorted into a large heart formed by the band as it played "Let Me Call You Sweetheart". Senior Class Vice-President, Libbi Rhodes opened sealed envelopes labeled "Queen" and "Princesses" and crowned them accordingly. To assist in the coronation were Eileen Rodrigues, Rachel Herring, and Ramona Preston, crown bearers. Lynn Blackburn carried the Queen's bouquet. At the completion of the ceremonies the Queen and her court were seated at a huge throne where they reigned for the rest of the game. The Homecoming Dance, in the Gym, immediately followed the game. Carmen Garcia led her court and escorts in the Grand March to the strains of Lex Harp's orchestra.

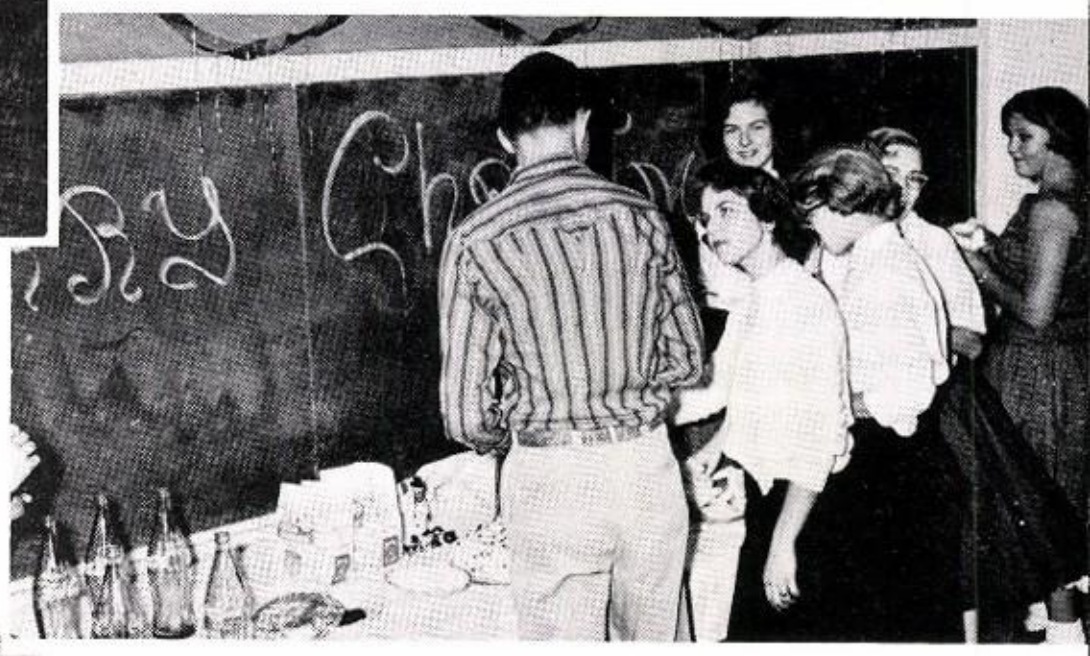
STUDENT COUNCIL ACTIVE IN 1956-'57

Biggest projects for the 1956-'57 Student Council were the selection and crowning of the Homecoming Queen and the big dance. This year's crowning of the Homecoming Queen was one of the most spectacular in the history of Eagle Pass High School. The Student Council sponsored a Christmas dance every year, but this year for the first time it was a Black and White Ball, one of the most beautiful Christmas dances on record. Another first is chalked up for this year's Student Council. During January, Student Council members ordered Student Council pins. One of the big campaigns launched by the Student Council this year was the "Speak English" campaign for the betterment of the school's scholastic standing. One of the minor campaigns was one for the beautification of the school grounds. Signs were put up to remind students to keep off the grass. The Student Council also is responsible for the Chapel Services held every Monday morning. Members for the 1957 year were: Seniors: Roberto Arocha, J. D. Cage, Jorge Davila, Ileana Esparza, Patsy Jones, Rosario Lara, June Partee, Jimmy Pittman, Norma Ramirez, Delia Rodriguez, John Schmidt, Carolyn Spence; Juniors: Carmen Garcia, Ralph Garza, Olinda Gonzalez, Julio Frausto, Rosa Elia Huerta, Enriqueta Olivares, Ronald Ritchie; Sophomores: Dean Cary, Daisy English, Gus Martinez, Olga Reyna, Melva Rodriguez, Jimmy Smith, Rosa Maria Torres, Jim Wueste, Jorge Johnston; Freshmen: Josefina Barrientos, Roberto Batres, Beverly Cage, Diana Garcia, Gracie Heredia, Jim Harrison, Laura Lane, Adelina Maldonado, Kay Nelson, Fred Reyna, Angelita Varela.

Pres. Ileana Esparza, Vice Pres. Carolyn Spence, Sec. Treas. Carmen Garcia, Reporter Patsy Jones, Advisor C. A. Landrum.

CHRISTMAS PARTIES, GALA DECORATIONS

could all be observed on December 18 in Eagle Pass High School.
Left: June Partee is snooping under the tree a little early.



The Christmas tree and all other hall decorations were Student Council projects. Twenty-seven homerooms celebrated with individual parties.
Right: Sophomores all seem to be enjoying themselves at one of their parties.

At each party, students donated cookies, cakes, sandwiches, candy, drinks, and other delicious party foods.

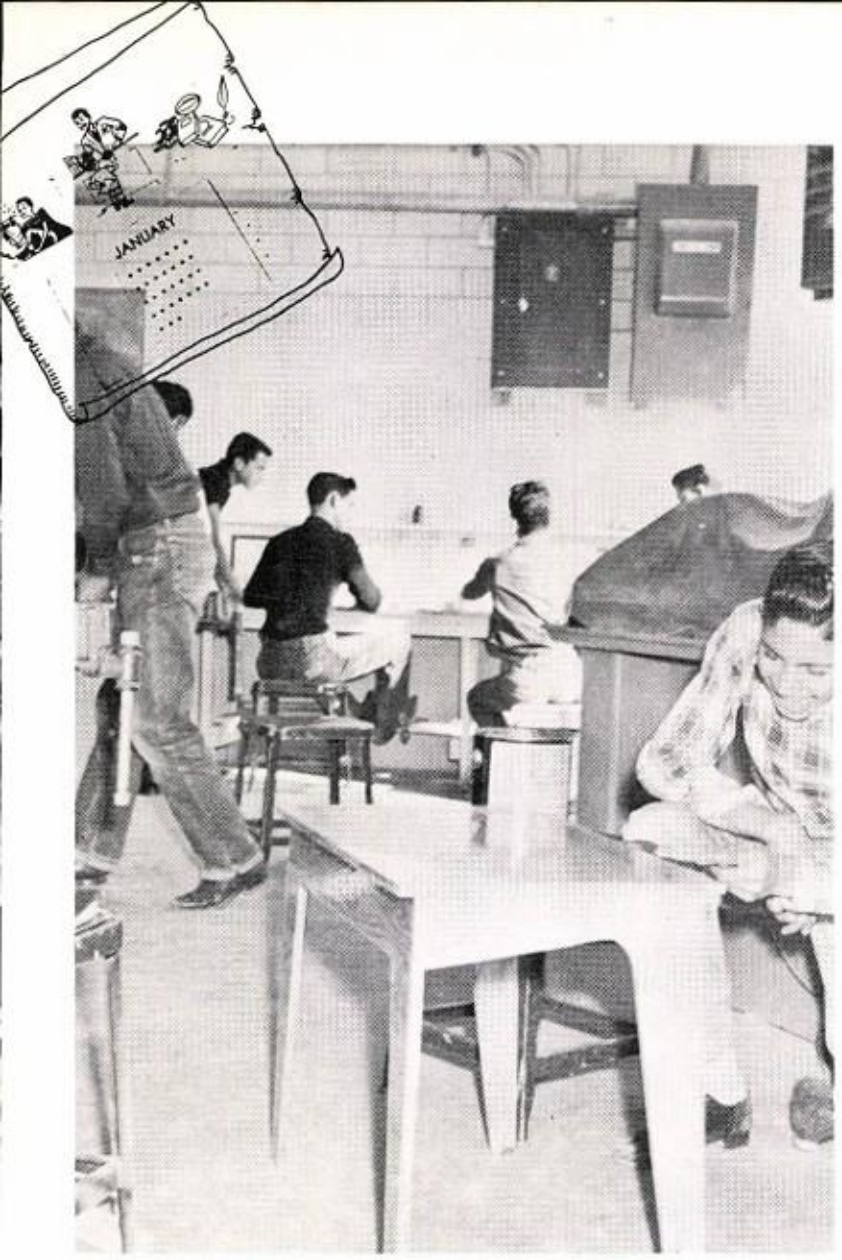
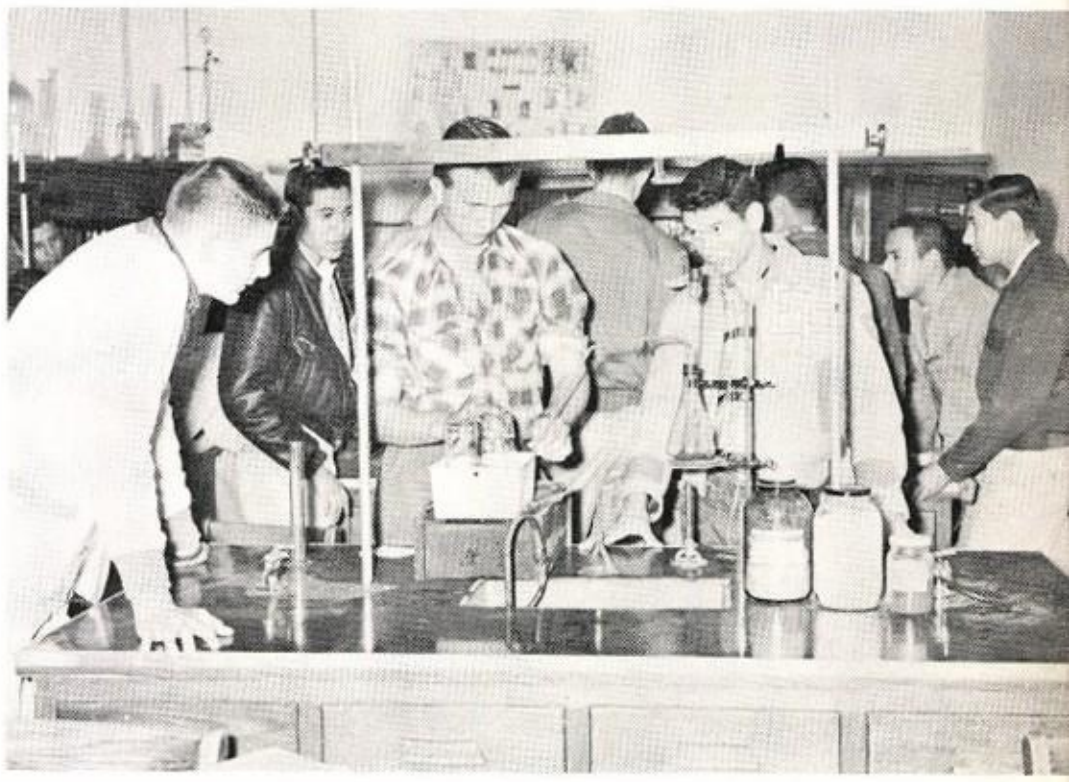
Two senior homerooms joined together for a very festive party. Music, decorations and good food were enjoyed by all.
Right: Several domestic males stirring up the punch.

When the parties were over, and all students had mixed and mingled, we had an assembly Christmas program. Music was furnished by the band and choral group. Although the parties and assembly were happy occassions, everyone was glad to hear the final dismissal bell for the Christmas holidays.

CLASSROOMS ARE ACTIVE



Above: Shop boys working on some of their projects. Admiring his completed table is Rudy Bowles and in the background Ricardo Sifuentes makes project plans.



In the chemistry lab several of our future chemists busily work on an experiment. Ronald Ritchie, Alan DeWald, and Frank Chisum are wondering if their oxygen experiment is going to be a success or an explosion.

Something's always happening before speech class. Notice the variety of activities, Gail James reads a book, Vicente Salinas and Troy Horner make like speech contest judges, Beth Green and Necah Stewart admire Necah's sweater, everyone else talks as usual.

At right, the physics class performs an original experiment while Mr. Howard looks on at a safe distance.

SCHOOL FAVORITE ELECTIONS

At left are pictured the nominees for the school favorite positions. Out of twenty-nine nominations, six were chosen. The actual election was held in the EPHS gym during the lunch hour. It was all done by secret ballot and the entire school voted.

Other elections taking place in E P H S are the class, Student Council, and National Honor Society elections held for officers each year. This year, elections were accompained by many campaign speeches and a general excitement all around school.

FRIENDSHIP DAY ATTRACTS THOUSANDS

Approximately two thousand students from Mexico and the United States took part in the twelfth annual International Friendship Day festivities in Eagle Pass, Saturday, February 23, sponsored jointly by the Eagle Pass and Piedras Negras Rotary Clubs.

Twenty-four marching units from Mexico, including students from Torreon, Durango, Rosita, Muzquiz, and Piedras Negras, participated in the parade which began at 2:30 Saturday afternoon. There were fourteen representative American marching units in the parade, including the Sul Ross College Band from Alpine, the Senoritas de Rosas and Los Caballeros from Odessa Junior College, high school bands from Boerne Crystal City, Uvalde, San Felipe, La Pryor, Bracketville, Eagle Pass, the local junior high band, and the Quemado Cowboy band.

Officially opening the celebration was a student dance at the Piedras Negras Casino Friday night beginning at eight. It was a grand success according to everyone who attended.

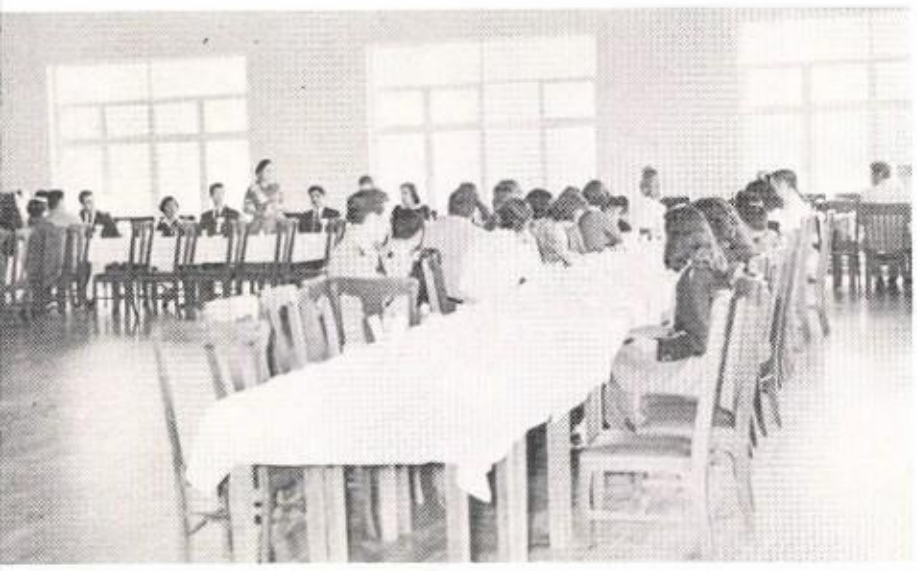
Saturday festivities began at 8:30 a.m. with a concert by the Sul Ross Band on the Piedras Negras plaza and a concert by the Eagle Pass Jr. High band on the Eagle Pass post office steps. Uvalde and San Felipe followed the Sul Ross Band, each playing a short concert. All other bands present followed the EPHS band with short concerts on the post office steps ending at 11:30.

Lunch was served free of charge to all visitors between 11:00 and 12:30 at the Eagle Field House courtesy of the Rotary Club.

At 12:45 the Sul Ross Band gave a concert at the EPHS auditorium and promptly at 2:30 the parade began. It first went to Piedras Negras and then in Eagle Pass the parade moved from the bridge down Commercial St. to Main St., then down Main to the Eagle Hotel. It turned right and proceeded to the plaza, where the parade ended.

Approximately sixty students took part in the Student Congress at the P. N. Casino Saturday morning.

According to Mr. C. A. Landrum, local Rotary president, the entire celebration was a marvelous success and served its purpose, international good-will, excellently.



Student Congress meets at Casino in Piedras Negras.

Guest band, Sul Ross, meets Mexico on bridge.

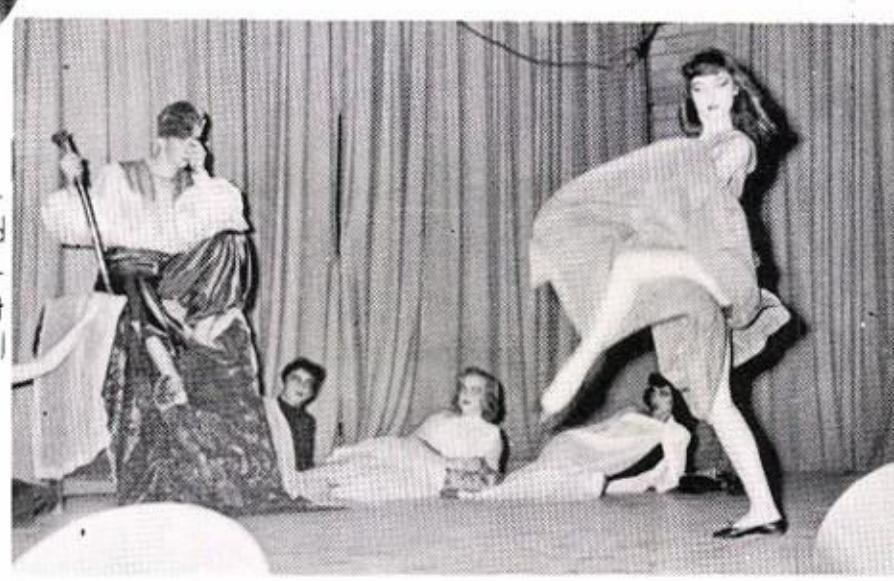
JUNIOR JUBILEE

The Jubilee on February 7th at the Eagle Pass High School Auditorium, was one of the biggest attractions of the year. As master of ceremonies, Joe Tom Easley was a show in himself with his jokes and fast ad-libbing. The opening number was a beautiful dance to "Deep Purple" by Enriqueta Olivares.

In all there were thirty-two acts and if one had to choose the best, it would be impossible for they were all very good. One act which was requested as a repeat from one of the Junior floor-shows was "Stranded in the Jungle" featuring Joe Morales, Necah Stewart and Tony Rodriguez.

The show was made up of songs, dances, pantomimes, and skits, and much natural talent was displayed. Gail James drew many laughs in her pantomime of the song "I'm just a Girl that Can't say No", from the show Oklahoma.

The spotlight of the evening fell on Alfonso Lopez and his interpretation of Elvis Presley. The crowd literally "went wild" and "Elvis" did several encores.



Arabia was the scene in this act and we see Necah Stewart dancing for Ralph Hausman and his Harem.

Among those displaying musical talent were Alfonso Caballero, John Schockley, Milton Witt, Ralph Garza, Joe Morales, Oscar Morales and Raul Ramirez depicting the "Hungry Seven".

Dina Garrido and Marta Erhard display their talents in doing the well-known rythym "Cha-Cha-Cha" while some husky line-men look on.

'57 SENIOR PROM HELD AT FORT DUNCAN

Senior class colors of blue and white were lavishly used as the color scheme for the Senior Prom at Fort Duncan Club Saturday May 18th.

A large crowd attended the last big social event of the school year at which students, faculty and guests danced from nine until one. Because of rainy weather the orchetra played in the main ballroom but many dancers enjoyed its strains from the starlit patio. The Trinity University Orchestra supplied the music ranging from "Cha-Cha-Cha" to Glenn Miller.

Nealy Jones, chairman of decorations, and her committee, Libbi Rhodes, Delia Rodriguez, Enrique Jimenez, J. R. Bruce, Bobby Hester, Susan Melson, Charlotte Lyall and Frances Richards labored Saturday morning and afternoon, using gardenias in the floral arrangements. WHO'S WHO

AMONG THE EAGLES

On March 13, 1957, the first Who's Who roster of Eagle Pass High School was selected. Almost fifty students were nominated by the student body as candidates for the thirteen fields of achievement: religion, leadership, fine arts, business, agriculture, homemaking, journalism, athletics, international relations, community service, math and science and school service. A committee appointed by Principal C. A. Landrum, composed of all senior members of the faculty, deliberated at length in closed session until by unanimous action, one student had been selected for each of eleven categories. The other two categories, math and science, and school service were left vacant since no student was found who met the stiff standard in those fields.

Who's Who was originally suggested by the staff of EL CENIZO in order to recognize students who had distinguished themselves in special fields of competence. The idea became a reality through the efforts of Student Council and Mr. Landrum, council sponsor and principal.

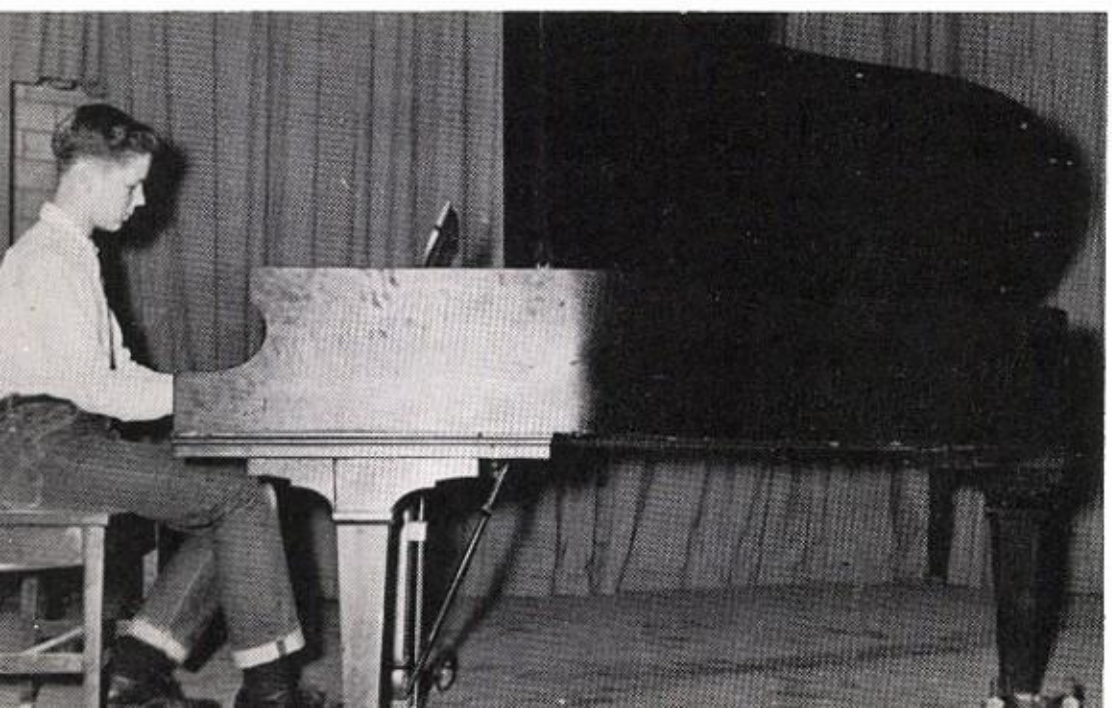
VERLAN NIX, outstanding in religious activities. Verlan, now 17, has, since the age of 15, been pastor of a congregation of the Church of Christ in Quemado. He regularly preaches on Sunday mornings to an average of forty-five church members, choosing his material from the Bible and occasionally from material assembled by other men of God. Verlan hopes to attend Florida Christian College and eventually devote his life to the ministry.

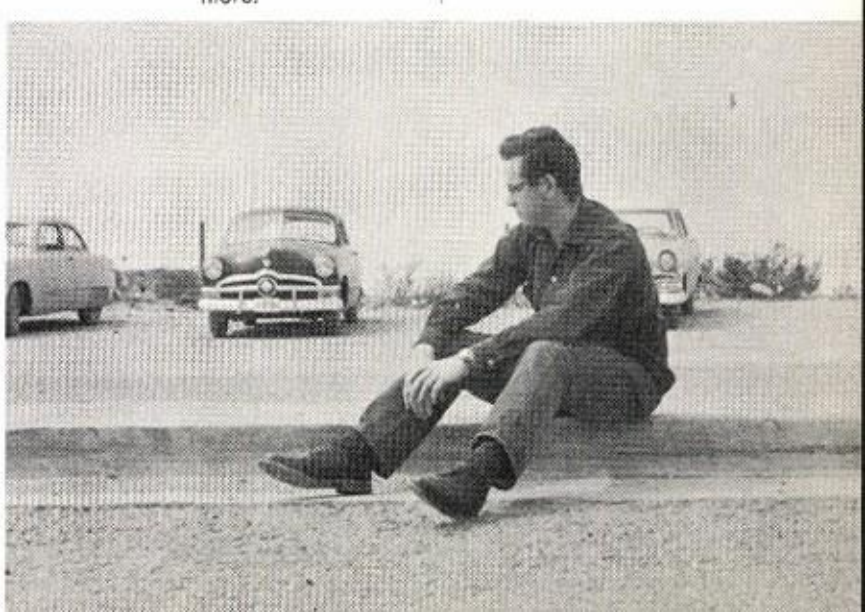
ILEANA ESPARZA, outstanding in leadership. All through high school, Ileana has displayed great leadership ability recognized both by students and faculty. She has been president of Student Council, president of the Booster Club, editor-in-chief of the yearbook, chairman of the International Student Congress, Miss Eagle Pass High School, Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow, Girls' State representative, junior class president and held many other offices. In all she has held office in, or distinguished herself in 43 different activities. The teaching profession is fortunate that she has chosen it.

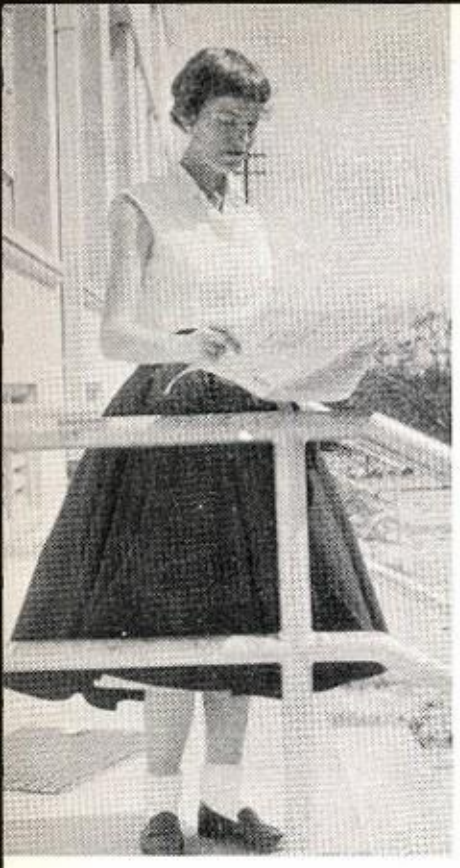
JOHN SCHMIDT, outstanding in fine arts. As a musician as well as a connoisseur of the other arts, John is tops. He is a first class pianist, and the school's outstanding accompanist for musical events. He is his church's organist, plays the French horn in the band and has been selected both for district and regional band. He plans to devote himself to music as a concert pianist or teacher.

ROBERT AROCHA, outstanding in business. Robert is a familiar figure at one of the outstanding men's clothing departments in Eagle Pass, Riskind's, where he has been a salesman for two years. He has been outstanding in his business subjects - bookkeeping and typing, and has studied distributive education for the past two years. He plans to attend Paris Junior College.

SHERWOOD MORROW, outstanding in hobbies. Where one hobby plus school work is sufficient for most students, Sherwood's interests have led him into three diverse fields, astronomy, photography, and rock collecting. During the past year, he has become interested in micro-brganisms as well. As far back as 1954 his rock collection was on display at the high school. He plans a liberal course in college which will enable him to broaden his interests still more.





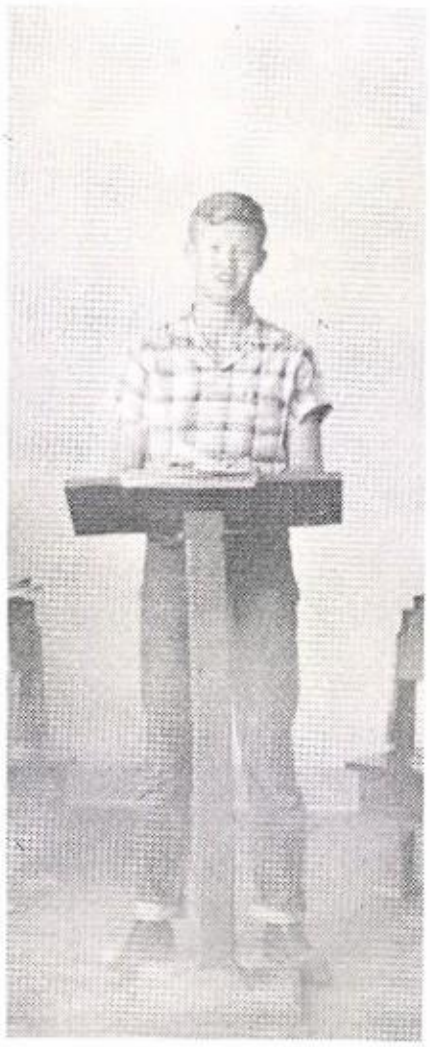


PATSY JONES, outstanding in journalism. Patsy is editor-in-chief of the Hi-Light, high school newspaper, during the period when the character of the paper has changed from "scandal sheet" type to real school journalism, and when the change was recognized by a rise in the paper's rating to first. She is a member of Quill and Scroll, national journalism honor society, and the National Honor Society, was sophomore exchange editor, junior news editor and as a junior made 1st in the Soil Conservation Essay Contest.

LARRY GREENBURG, outstanding in community service. Larry, since the age of 12, has been a member of the Ground Observers Corps of the Air Defense Command. He is now 14 and assistant chief of the local organization, often supervising the activities of adult members. He is responsible for spotting planes and recording them on charts, then reporting them to San Antonio. Like other members he has regular weekly duty hours, and has devoted several hundred hours to this valuable work.

ZULEMA GUTIERREZ, outstanding in homemaking. Zulema is second vice-president for District E of Area 10 of the Future Homemakers of America for 1957, has served as treasurer of the local chapter for two years and has been a member of the FHA for three years. She has applied her school-acquired knowledge in her own home, makes her own clothes as well as those of a younger sister, and still found time for a part-time job after school.

DEAN CARY, outstanding in international relations. Dean has consistently contributed much toward establishing friendship between the United States and Mexico, both through his school activities and his work with the Colegio Biblico in Eagle Pass and Del Rio where he spends his weekends teaching and preaching. He has worked on the International Friendship Day celebration for two years and was not only co-master of ceremonies at Student Congress, but has perfected his knowledge of the Spanish language to the point where he was able to serve as interpreter, translating complex ideas in both languages.



JOEL NOWLIN, outstanding in agriculture. Joel has successively held FFA positions as treasurer, secretary and finally president of his local chapter. This year he is Winter Garden District Treasurer and State Farmer Degree Candidate, the highest state award a member may attain. His freshman year he was District High Point Man in poultry judging, was on the poultry judging team two years, Farm Shop Skills team one year. In addition to his FFA projects, he does much of the work on his father's farm and plans to attend an agricultural college to study agricultural engineering.

FRANK CHISUM, outstanding in athletics. Although Frank is known principally for his prowress in football, as quarterback of the Eagles and the 1957 all-district halfback, he is an all-around athlete and has distinguished himself in baseball, basketball and track as well. He plays 2nd base in baseball, in track runs the 440 and mile relay. He was elected freshman favorite for '54-'55, and during this his junior year, elected most popular boy at Eagle Pass High.

As every Mexican city and village has its bullring, so our sister city of Piedras Negras is provided with its own corrida, the scene of the ceremonial re-enactment of man's age-old conquest of the animal world, at once a sport and a pageant. Against the familiar background of billboard advertising and aficionados, Jaime Bolanos proves his mastery of el toro.

SPURRED TEAM TO SIX GRID VICTORIES

Under the capable coaching of Cozel Foster and his staff, the Eagles were provided with the extra stamina and drive needed to finish a successful season with six wins and four losses.

"A" Team Managers Mario Sanchez and Reymundo Riojas and "B" Team Manager Francisco Casales worked hard to keep the equipment in top shape and service the teams on the field.

Coach Foster came to the Eagles in 1955 after several successful seasons at Stinnett.

The distinction of longest service goes to Coach John C. Green who has served Eagle Pass teams since 1944.

HARD HITTING FIVE

Eagles filled two positions on the First All-District Team. Frank Chisum won a back position. Small but tough, Frank turned in consistently brilliant performances, even when the Eagles were outmanned. Adalberto Santos was named to a guard position. Santos, who hit with terrific impact, played middle guard on defense. The Second Team included the names of Allan Dewald, tackle, Jesus Mendoza, back, and Ellis Mason, end.

The boys of 14 AAA All-District Teams were chosen from the five teams in the District, Del Rio, Uvalde, Edgewood, South San Antonio and Eagle Pass.

EAGLES ENTER TRIPLE A LEAGUE

Playing their first year in AAA football, the hard fighting Eagles won six and lost four games, defeating Crystal City, Laredo, Carrizo Springs, San Felipe, and Edgewood. They were defeated in pre-district play by Alpine and Port Lavaca, in district play by Uvalde and Del Rio and tied by South San Antonio.

The Eagles, who were out-weighed in the majority of their games, were led by the combined ball carrying talent of Carlos Roman and the hard charging sprints of Jesus Mendoza. Excellent quarterbacking was done by Frank Chisum.

The aggressive forward wall was sparked by Adalberto Santos, Allan Dewald, and Ellis Mason.

VARSITY CAGERS

Young but Hard Working Varsity.

The Eagle Pass Cagers pounded the hardwoods this year with a young and inexperienced team. With only three returning starters from the previous year, Frank Chisum, Leonel Rodriguez, and Sergio Cerna, the Eagles gained the experience that it takes to form a winning team. The Eagles attended three tournaments, at Big Lake, Uvalde, and Del Rio. Sergio Cerna placed on the All-Tournament Team at Uvalde and Frank Chisum was selected for the All-Tournament Team at Del Rio. The Eagles will lose no players next season.

THE EAGLES HAVE SPARK TO WIN FOUR

The Eagle Pass Baseball Team placed last in District 27-AA, winning four and losing seven. In district competition they defeated Del Rio in one game. Errors and bases on balls--they'll beat you every time. These are the two reasons the Eagles lost so many games.

The five leading hitters wound up with Cerna hitting 320, Roman 291, Flores 315, Lerma 256, and Chisum pounding out a tremendous 440 average. These five Eagles' averages were based on 30 or more trips to the plate. Not pictured on the following page is Candio Gonzalez who had an average of 285. BUSINESS COMES TO SCHOOL THROUGH D. E. CLUB AND D.E. CLASSES

D. E. is a Distributive Education course for students interested in retail, wholesale, or selling service jobs.

There are 32 D. E. class members. The D. E. Club has window displays at school to advertise the various stores that help by employing D. E. Students.

On December 21, 1956, this club had a party at J. C. Park and at the end of the school year, a banquet.

The following stores have helped by employing these students: Newberry's, Aaronson Brothers, DeBona Bibb, Penney's, Kress, Monarch Grocery, Dairyland, La Nueva Era, E. P. Drug, Riskind's, Carl's, Aztec, Fort Duncan Club, Arturo Flores, & Co., Ezell's, Cannon's Eagle Pass Lumber Co., Three Sisters, Eagle Grocery.

TEACH NEW SKILLS

Sharing knowledge and gaining more knowledge to produce better pictures are the aims of the PHOTO CLUB.

One of the activities that the students in the club enjoy most, is the use of the dark room, where developing and enlarging is done. The club has a complete dark room, which is used by students who develop their own films.

The club also offers a fine opportunity to any individual who is interested in learning the art of photography.

BOOSTER CLUB FASTEST GROWING

This year the need was evident for one group of students who on their own time would take on the job of boosting school spirit. The members worked hard painting posters to publicize the football, baseball, basketball and track teams and all school dances.

In addition to this, the Booster Club plans to have two assemblies each year, one at the first of the year to introduce the football team, drum major, majorettes, cheerleaders and all club officers, and the second to introduce the school favorites, class favorites, and the Who's Who.

Although this Club was organized only this year, it has a membership of over 100 boys and girls. The requirements for membership are character, scholarship and a desire to work. All meetings are held after school, and on the students own time.

FUTURE TEACHERS CONDUCT CLASSES IN LEE ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

In September, 1956, the Future Teachers Club was spontaneously organized by students interested in the teaching profession. Mr. C. A. Landrum, principal, accepted the invitation to sponsor the organization and arranged opportunities for members to teach and observe in the lower grades of local schools.

FTA attempts to develop leadership, to give experience in planning and opportunities for personal growth. Through its programs, students learn about the teaching profession while still in high school.

Members not only have opportunities to teach under supervision, but to attend conferences where they meet and exchange ideas with other prospective teachers.

The first Eagle Pass Hi-Light was published on February 24, 1933. Since then, the paper has been printed bi-monthly, with an increase in size, coverage and circulation, for twenty-four years.

Editor Ileana Esparza and Mrs. Fuller, sponsor, choose snapshots for the '57 EL CENIZO.

A vigorous financial campaign led by business manager Troy Horner and his staff, and wide coverage of events by J. R. Bruce, student photographer, enabled editor Ileana Esparza to plan the largest yearbook Eagle Pass has ever seen. Since initial publication in 1920 under the name "The Eagle", EL CENIZO has been an all-student publication, and staff members work during weekly club periods and free time voluntarily given.

EL CENIZO HISTORY

To improve the publication through study and exchange of ideas, EL CENIZO financed the attendance of two staffers, Ileana Esparza and Libbi Rhodes, at the SWTSTC Summer Yearbook Clinic for 1956 and for the first time ever, entered EL CENIZO for NS PA Critical Service. It was awarded a Second Class Honor Rating for 1956. On January 26, 1957, 20 members made the 300 mile round trip to San Antonio to attend the Interscholastic League Student Activities Conference sponsored by the University of Texas.

Junior Historian Article Published

Raul Montemayor, junior historian class of '60, brought special distinction to the Eagle Pass chapter through his article "A City on the Rio Grande" which appeared in the January issue of the Junior Historian Magazine.

Under the sponsorship of Mr. Joseph Martine, the club is the local chapter of the state organization. Its main purposes and activities have been research, unearthing of new facts and presenting for publication articles concerning local or historical events of special interest to the school and city.

DEBATERS COMPETE IN INTER-SCHOLASTIC LEAGUE

Hot issues like segregation took the debaters away from quiet club periods into history and speech classes to debate the pros and cons. The really big question of the year was "The Farm Problem and 90% of Parity" which was the issue debated in Interscholastic League in Del Rio March 23rd, and in which our group participated. On March 1st and 2nd, the debaters attended the Trinity Speech Meet in San Antonio representing Eagle Pass.

ROCKHOUNDS ADD TO NOTABLE COLLECTION THROUGH SEARCH AND SCIENTIFIC STUDY

Purchase of cutter and polisher is dream of members

Regular Thursday field trips have enlarged individual collections of interesting rocks and provided grist for the club's projected polisher. Profits from the Rockhound Dance Dec. 14th kicked off the polishing and cutting machine fund. Through use of the machine owned by sponsor M. J. Howard (right), a display of polished and uncut stones was exhibited by the club in the high school library.

To emphasize the beauty and utility of our local rocks, the club presented to Delia Rodriguez, Rockhound Sweetheart, a pair of earrings, made by members, of red moss agate, a stone found in Maverick County.

President Braulio Gonzalez, secretary Bob Spence, sponsors Mr. Howard, Mrs. Steele and Mrs. Stephenson, members Victoria Sanchez, Consuelo Ortiz, Carmen Rodriguez, Ernest McCollough, Shelton Rhodes, Joe Luis Diaz, Israel Gaitan, Manuel Roman, Rodolfo Luna, Tommy Ramirez, Henry C. EAGLE PASS FUTURE FARMERS

WIN DISTRICT AWARDS

The Eagle Pass chapter of the Future Farmers of America under the sponsorship of Herschel Witherspoon is affiliated with the national organization which was founded in 1928. Our local chapter was founded in 1949 to develop agricultural leadership, cooperation and citizenship.

The Eagle Pass chapter has done outstanding work in the community and in competitive meets in the district and region during the current year. This year the group won first place in the district in Chapter Conduct and Greenhand. They won second place in the Chapter Farm Division of the Winter Garden District and third place in FFA District Quizz. These top awards were followed by a third place in Livestock Judging of the Winter Garden District, won by three freshmen, Bobby Hobbs, Jimmy Harrison, and David Preston in their first judging contest at Lytle, Texas.

On the social side, the Eagle Pass club received even more recognition when its club sweetheart, Mary Evelyn Bibb, was elected sweetheart of the whole district.

ADVERTISING

Our business district adjoining the Rio Grande is the commercial heart of our community, with the International Bridge its great artery. It is too, for us, the financial backbone of our yearbook, for in these buildings our advertisers carry on the trade which helps make our book a reality. Not for us are the industrial giants, the absentee landlords. Our advertisers are our friends, our parents, relatives, employers, and we their sons and daughters, workers, students, faithful patrons.
